

Reporting Instructions:

You must report to the Jury Assembly Room, 3rd Floor, Mesa County Justice Center, 125 North Spruce Street (where you reported Wednesday morning) for general jury selection on Monday, November 1, 2021 at 9:30 a.m. or a warrant may issue for your arrest or you may be subject to a contempt citation.

Frequently Asked Questions:

When will excused jurors be notified? If you are excused, court personnel will call you Thursday afternoon, October 28.

What if no one calls me? If no one calls you it means you are NOT excused and you must report on Monday, November 1 at 9:30 a.m. or Judge Robison may issue a warrant for your arrest or you may be subject to a contempt citation.

What if I thought I would be excused based on the jury questionnaire I filled out on October 27 but I wasn't excused? It means the Judge and attorneys reviewed your jury questionnaire and did not excuse you. Judge Robison is the ONLY person who can excuse you at this point so you must report for general jury selection on Monday, November 1, 2021 at 9:30 a.m. During general jury selection you will have an opportunity to speak further with the judge and attorneys regarding your situation.

What if I become ill or have a family emergency between now and when I'm supposed to come back on November 1? Judge Robison is the ONLY person who can excuse you at this point. If you have an emergency (death in family or illness) you may submit a written request to the Court explaining your emergency situation. Please be very detailed and email your request to: amanda.hayes@judicial.state.co.us or hand deliver your request to the Jury Commissioner, 3rd Floor, Mesa County Justice Center, 125 North Spruce Street, Grand Junction, CO. The Court will only consider true emergencies so please be mindful of what is a true emergency and what is not.

What if I think of something later that I should have put on the jury questionnaire I filled out October 27, can I add to my jury questionnaire now? Not at this point; however, during general jury selection you will have an opportunity to speak further with the judge and attorneys regarding anything else you would like them to know.

(If employed, give the bottom portion of this sheet to your employer; retain the top portion of this sheet so you know what time to report on Monday, November 1, 2021.)
